Dear Parent/Carer

GCSE Exams

As your son/daughter's final GCSE exams start in five weeks' time, students should be well underway with their own revision.

Revision over the Easter holiday will be key to the success of exam preparation and ultimately their final grades. The exam period can be a busy time and we find that students who have organised and planned their revision cope well and therefore achieve the best outcomes. With this in mind, I suggest they need to revise independently for at least four hours a day over Easter. It is important that students do not rely solely on revision that is carried out in lesson.

Attached is a timetable of any extra revision classes staff have volunteered to run over Easter. In addition, on the Robert Sutton website students can find a PowerPoint (revision support pack) which has been compiled by Subject Leaders with links to revision resources and past papers.

Yours faithfully
